

Connecting and Investing in Latin America

Millicom, through its Tigo operations is generating economic growth, promoting social good, and fostering digital innovation across its Latin American footprint

Investing in a prosperous future for Latin America

4.4%
of the combined foreign direct investment into Bolivia, Colombia, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Paraguay between 2014-2017 comes from Millicom

$3.7 BILLION
invested by Millicom in these countries between 2014-2017

82%
of total investments in 2017 built networks and equipment

Creating local jobs and wellbeing

Millicom supports 222,000 jobs in these seven countries

20,342
direct employees in the region

114,900
indirect jobs created from local purchases by Millicom

86,800
induced jobs created by the increased purchasing power of Millicom's direct and indirect employees

Tigo makes a high number of local purchases per employee, and each investment supports many jobs in the economy => High employment multiplier

Driving positive change in local communities

Millicom's Tigo businesses and employees contributed nearly

$1 BILLION

in taxes in 2017

This corresponds to the annual salaries of 115,000

school teachers in the region

Building digital highways and increasing financial inclusion

Tigo's mobile subscriber base in Latin America is more than

30 MILLION

Access to broadband has the potential to increase GDP in these countries by up to 3.9%

Millicom is empowering more than 5 MILLION people with Tigo Money in Latin America

$2.8 BILLION

was transacted in 2017 with Tigo Money in these seven countries

Highly integrated into the economy leading to...

For every one job at Tigo in Latin America

10

jobs have been indirectly created

$5 BILLION

overall contribution to the combined GDP of these countries in 2017

$9 MILLION

assigned to social impact projects in 2017

Connected more than

1,000 schools

Reached more than

1 million people

Trained more than 50,000 women